

▪

Day School Offered by Ely Lifelong Learners

Popular tutor and native Russian, Marina Burrell, is the tutor for this day school. The aim is to discuss the life and works of the great Russian composer Rachmaninov. We will make musical connections between Rachmaninov's works and relate his compositions to his personal life. We will also explore the magic of the 'four silver weeping notes', the mysteries behind 'The White Lilac' and the composer's long silence.

- Venue: The Countess Free Church, Chapel Street, Ely, CB6 1AD (parking for blue badge holders only).
- Monday 28 June 2020, 10.30am -15.30pm.
- Course fee is £30. Payment by cheque only. Bring your own lunch. Lunchtime drinks and coffee/tea provided in afternoon.
- Pre-booking is required. Please contact Anne on 01353 662712 or at awarham575@btinternet.com.