

Sword, Sceptre and Sainthood A Journey Through the Royal Collection

How does the largest and most outstanding private art collection in the world illustrate the evolution of the monarchy over 500 years into the 20th century?

Like any family album, the paintings they collected and commissioned reflect what British rulers have done, what they looked like but also how they wished to be remembered and what they most valued.

CALL is a not-for-profit voluntary organisation which promotes lifelong learning in Cambridgeshire.
